

Office of the Manhattan Borough President
City of New York

Proclamation

Whereas: We are privileged to live in a city where diversity, shared experience, and learning from those around us is central to our culture and the character of our community; and

Whereas: The Cross-Cultural Internship Program is an international program that provides practical training experience to Asian students while promoting the resources and qualities of New York City; and

Whereas: The Cross-Cultural Internship Program serves as a cultural exchange gateway for Asian students to bring positive ideas to their American counterparts and for US companies to provide guidance, resources and support to them as they prepare to become members of our global economy; and

Whereas: The Cross-Cultural Internship Program, has helped to change the lives of youth, by making available hands-on experience and work that will enable future generations to amass an array of talents in varying fields; and

Whereas: The Cross-Cultural Internship Program allows students to become fully immersed in foreign culture, both as members of the workforce and of the community, and promotes a collaborative and successful next generation; and

Now therefore, I, Scott M. Stringer do hereby commend the Cross-Cultural Internship Program for its efforts to promote the next generation of leaders through unity and teaching and declare this Tuesday, August 16, 2011

"Cross-Cultural Internship Day"
in the Borough of Manhattan.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Borough of Manhattan to be affixed.

Scott M. Stringer
President, Borough of Manhattan
