

Office of the Manhattan Borough President
City of New York

Proclamation

Whereas: We are proud to acknowledge those organizations that have remained committed to fostering the minds of young people and improving cross-cultural understanding; and

Whereas: The Cross Cultural Internship Program (CCIP) connects Asian students with educational opportunities and workplace experience in the United States through its dynamic intercultural exchange; and

Whereas: CCIP encourages the importance of intercultural communication as well as the development of practical skills among its students; and

Whereas: Since 2007, over 700 students from various countries have succeeded in the CCIP; and

Whereas: I extend my congratulations to the 137 students of the 2013 CCIP for their diligence and hard work,

Now therefore, I, Scott M. Stringer, do hereby commend The Cross Cultural Internship Program (CCIP) on its commitment to education and on the occasion of its 2013 culminating activity, declare this Monday, August 26, 2013

"Cross Cultural Internship Program Appreciation Day" in the Borough of Manhattan.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Borough of Manhattan to be affixed.

Scott M. Stringer
President, Borough of Manhattan

