

Proclamation

FUSIA Communications

Whereas: On this day, July 8, 2014, the friends, members, and supporters of FUSIA Communications gather for its Annual Recognition Ceremony; and

Whereas: FUSIA Communications has, for several years, managed vital services, which have provided skilled and ambitious interns to American corporations. Through these services, FUSIA develops young, eager and dedicated minds, benefitting corporations through diversification, advancement, and connecting the cultures of world leaders. Through proven efficacy, FUSIA Communications has grown to create partnerships with eight of Asia's premier universities and twenty-five American host organizations; and

Whereas: Through the organization's steadfast devotion to its cause, FUSIA Communications has earned federal recognition, becoming a sponsor of the Department of State's J-1 Visa Exchange Visitor Program. The organization also contributes to this program: for the first year, sponsoring an exceptional seventy exchange visitors to obtain professional experience and cultural exposure; and

Whereas: FUSIA Communications has been a remarkable catalyst and pioneer in facilitating international relations, influencing global corporate and political establishments. The organization is renowned for its impressive work, and will continue to be admired for its sponsorship of the enrichment of young minds through invaluable experience and practical application of skills and ambitions.

Therefore, I, Grace Meng, Member of Congress representing the Sixth Congressional District, acknowledge FUSIA Communications for great recognition and honor and declare today to be "FUSIA Communications Day" throughout the Sixth Congressional District.

July 8, 2014
Date

Grace Meng
Member of Congress