

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

BOROUGH OF BROOKLYN

CITY OF NEW YORK

Citation

Whereas, it is a time-honored Brooklyn tradition to recognize those individuals and organizations that demonstrate an outstanding commitment to promoting excellence and providing outstanding services and support to local residents and those in need, it is therefore fitting that we join in acknowledgment of their special events and occasions; and

Whereas, all of Brooklyn joins together to recognize and honor Elizabeth Kay for the outstanding contributions she has made in our local communities in our great borough and abroad; and

Whereas, on behalf of all Brooklynites, I salute Elizabeth Kay, founder and principal of FUSIA Communications, a woman-and-minority multidisciplinary organization dedicated to cross-cultural exchange since 2002; I applaud her for being a seasoned marketing professional with diverse industry experience in cross-cultural communications, computer programming, and internship program management; I applaud her for entering the non-profit sector, where she became a program director for the federal government's Title V Senior Community Service Employment Program, for hosting numerous small-to-large-scale events for various clients, and for becoming a member of the launch team of Ming Pao Daily News in New York; I commend her for establishing the Cross Cultural Internship Program (CCIP), for teaching marketing and computer programming, and for her role on the board of managers of the Flushing YMCA; and I thank her for all that she has done to touch and improve the lives of many, helping to move our communities forward as One Brooklyn;

Now, therefore, I, Eric L. Adams, President of the Borough of Brooklyn, do hereby confer this citation on

Elizabeth Kay

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Borough of Brooklyn to be affixed this 6th day of July, 2018.

Eric L. Adams

President of the Borough of Brooklyn

