

A TRIBUTE TO THE DIVERSITY OF HARLEM AT WINDOWS OVER HARLEM

Promising a deeper glimpse into Harlem, an up-and-coming neighborhood, "A Taste of Harlem" was held at Windows Over Harlem restaurant. The event paid tribute to the diversity of Harlem and its rich community, which has inspired many renowned musicians, artists and writers.

Sponsored by Windows Over Harlem, a participating host company of Fusia Communications' Cross-Cultural Internship Program (www.fusia.net/ccip), "A Taste of Harlem" is geared toward the interests of the Cross-Cultural Internship Program (CCIP) students, and promises an enriching cross-cultural experience with activities showcasing the kaleidoscopic cultural landscape of Harlem.

"Harlem is home to a myriad of cultures and ethnicities. 'A Taste of Harlem' is a celebration of this colorful community and an affirmation of its rich history and vibrant future," said Eva Frazier, President of Windows Over Harlem.

"This experience is the perfect demonstration of what CCIP is about. This will be a chance for students to get close to a community and see its vigor eclipse all of their perceptions and preconceived notion. I would like to thank Eva Frazier, Windows Over Harlem and the Harlem community for this special opportunity," said Elizabeth Kay, President of FUSIA Communications, Inc.

Guests of Honor included NYS Senator Bill Perkins, Council member Robert Jackson and John Chun Liu, Mr. W. Majette from the Harlem Chamber of Commerce, Congressman Charles B. Rangel and Assemblyman Keith L.T Wright.

Student attendees included participants of CCIP who came from Hong Kong and Singapore as well as African students from Mali.

During the event, Majette had provided insights into Harlem's rich history and culture. Guests were treated to a food sampling session with cuisine from a variety of cultures - Soul Food, African, Latin, Middle American and Chinese - as well as performances featuring Gospel music, Soul and Salsa. Lou Myers was also present and performed a Jazz piece.
